My dear Kathleen;

I was extremely glad to receive your letter from Holland end of December.

I suppose you had,
alas, time to take a good rest since! Though living quietly here is at normal time, still it is so quiet for me and I am longing for the summer although I am sure not being able to go to my little place.

I am planning to try Sweden if there is a possibility to find a place near Stockholm where I could live quietly and perhaps receive some students.
The only foreign pupil here is a Norwegian

girl arrived not long ago, and Miss Holloway who was staying last summer with a Russian family in their estate; poor thing is very ill now.

If you please to go to America next season
it would be good to renew a little your repertoire.
Take the Concerto of etc. Harlowey, edited at Berlin & Schirmer; the author is Polish, died at Warsaw a few years ago;

very gifted; the Concerto is not very profound, deep, but good, nice music made by somebody knowing the violin technique and, I suppose, very effective. -

There is a "Russian Fantaisie" by Rimsky-Korsakow (a well sounding name).
very nice, a little too long needs of cuts and some little changes in the cadences.

the a charming, manuscript by Tor Aulin edited by Edouard Schildknock
at Stockholm, Grotting-gatan 28. — You may find all these at Breitkopf's at London. — Do you know my transcription of Chopin's, Lithaenisches Lied? I find it lovely — the Lied, of course.

As far as for the moment nothing can be fixed, but in case I should be in Sweden it would be nice if you could make the little trip by Norway for a few weeks and come to see me for a while?
I shall have 70 years
this year; there is no time to loose to see the old

Professor! —

All the Theatres are playing here; many Concerts too, but most of them for charity, for the wounded soldiers and their family. — Mrs. Stein has an enforced rest on account of the absence of the foreign students — I too in comparison of the past seasons. — I have not played yet suffering of neuralgia in my right arm; but I am getting on better and began to practice. — Needless to tell you how glad I shall be to hear from you. —

Heartiest kisses for you both. —

Mrs. Stein sends her best love.
